

One-off Personal Advice Fee Consent Form

A07

right by your side

Brighter Super is required by law to obtain your written consent before a one-off personal advice fee can be deducted from your account.

Consent to the deduction of a one-off personal advice fee can be provided by completing and signing this form.

If you do not wish to provide consent for a one-off personal advice fee to be deducted from your account, you do not have to sign this consent form.

Use our Appoint or change your adviser form if you wish to appoint this adviser as the adviser for your account.

Personal Details Brighter Super respects your privacy. All personal information collected is protected in line with Brighter Super's Privacy policy.

1 Consent to deduct one-off personal advice fee

I give consent to Brighter Super for a one-off advice fee of $, , to be deducted from my account (nominated above under Member's Personal Details) and paid to this adviser.

Please note: We will deduct the fee proportionately across your investment options. There is a one-off advice fee cap of 2% of your account balance with a maximum fee of $7,000. If the amount requested is above the 2% cap, the amount deducted will be restricted to 2% of your account balance.

I want the deduction of this fee deferred and paid on / /

I understand this fee will be paid to the adviser nominated under Adviser's details.

I understand this consent expires once the fee is deducted from my nominated account.

2 What services does the advice fee cover?

Superannuation assets are only able to be accessed to meet the cost associated with financial advice which is specific to your superannuation investment.

If the advice you receive is on a broad range of topics, only the portion of the fee relating to your superannuation may be met from your account. For example, the following financial advice areas are not permitted to be deducted from superannuation:

- broad advice on how you could best provide for your retirement; and
- advice to assist with maximizing your wealth generally, which may include budgeting and cash-flow analysis.

This is because fees for these services do not meet the 'sole purpose' of superannuation, which is to provide savings for use in retirement.

Your adviser will complete this section.

Please select (✓) the relevant option(s) or attach details of the services provided in respect of your nominated Brighter Super account under this fee arrangement:

- Establishing a Brighter Super Accumulation account and/or Pension account
- Transferring funds into a Brighter Super Accumulation account and/or Pension account
- Rolling funds out of a Brighter Super Accumulation account and/or Pension account
- Review of investments within a Brighter Super Accumulation account and/or Pension account
- Making a Lump sum withdrawal from a Brighter Super Accumulation account and/or Pension account
- Pension management of an existing Brighter Super Pension account (including pension payment strategy)
- Contribution(s) including: Personal concessional contributions, Personal non-concessional contributions, Spouse contributions and redirecting SG contributions
- Insurance inside a Brighter Super Accumulation account
- Claims management
- Beneficiary nomination(s)
- Retirement adequacy review
- Other: Please describe the service(s) you will provide your client for this fixed-term personal advice fee (the service(s) must relate specifically to your client's superannuation investment).

Important information

1. Personal advice fees can be payable as:

A one-off fixed dollar fee with a fee cap of 2% of your account balance up to a maximum fee of $7,000.

2. How long does my consent last?

Your consent provided on this form to deduct and pay a one-off advice fee will end immediately after the fee is paid to your adviser.

This means your adviser will have to ask for your consent again before any additional fees can be charged in the future.

3. Withdrawing consent for a one-off fee deduction arrangement

You may withdraw your consent for the deduction of fees from your account by advising Brighter Super in writing (and can use our Cancel consent for an advice fee deduction form). However, the written notice to withdraw consent must be received before we deduct the advice fee from your account.

4. What services does the advice fee cover?

Your adviser will provide you with financial advice in line with the services outlined in section 2 of this form.

5. Minimum balance

You must retain a minimum balance of $8,000 in your account. If your advice fee deductions reduce the value of your account below this amount you may be required to withdraw your total account balance.

3 Adviser declaration

By signing this form I acknowledge, confirm and/or declare that:

- My AFS Licensee and I are both registered with Brighter Super and the advice I have (or will) provide this client is consistent with the terms of that registration.
- This client has consented to the deduction and payment of this one-off advice fee for the advice I have (or will) provide.
- I have provided my client with all relevant and required information about the advice I'm giving them for which the one-off advice fee is being paid.
- I understand that the one-off advice fee can only be deducted from my client's Brighter Super account nominated on this form if the advice complies with the sole purpose test in superannuation law (and confirm the information in section 2 is correct and complies with that requirement).
- I agree that, if the Trustee determines that my client has not received the advice I agreed to provide for this fee, Brighter Super may seek (and I agree to pay) reimbursement (and compensation for my client's lost earnings) for the one-off advice fee paid to me (or my AFS Licensee).
- The advice I have (or will) provide is consistent with any arrangement in place between myself and/or my AFS Licensee and the Trustee in respect of the Brighter Super account nominated on this form.
- If my client gives me written notice to withdraw their consent before I'm paid the one-off advice fee, I will provide a copy of that notice to Brighter Super as soon as is reasonably practicable, and within the time required by Law.

4 Member declaration

By signing this form I acknowledge, confirm and/or declare that:

- I consent to the one-off advice fee detailed in Section 1 being deducted from my Brighter Super account nominated on this form and for the fee to be paid to the adviser nominated on this form in return for the personal advice the adviser has (or will) provide me.
- I understand that the one-off advice fee can only be deducted from my Brighter Super account nominated on this form if the advice relates to that account.
- I understand that I can withdraw my consent by notifying Brighter Super in writing before the fee is deducted from my account, but if I withdraw my consent, I may still be liable to pay my adviser the fee.

Please sign on the following page

- If for any reason the deduction of an advice fee is not made by Brighter Super, I acknowledge that I remain liable to pay the applicable advice fee to my adviser.
- I have read and understand each matter mentioned in the Important information on page 3 about the one-off advice fee deduction from my Brighter Super account.
- I understand that if my adviser engages another adviser within the same practice or AFS Licensee to provide services under the advice arrangement I have with my adviser, any advice fee will still be payable to my adviser.
- I understand that, if I want this adviser to act for me in relation to this account, I separately need to appoint the adviser as my adviser for this account using the Appoint or change adviser form.
- I understand that providing consent for a one-off fee to be deducted from my account does not revoke consent I have provided for any other advice fee arrangement and, if I wish to revoke consent to deduct another advice fee arrangement from my account, I need to complete the Cancel consent for an advice fee deduction form.
