

Brighter Super seeks new Member Representative Director after Jennifer Thomas steps down from Board

Brighter Super Chairman John Smith has thanked Jennifer Thomas for her seven years of service as a Director of the Fund after Ms Thomas resigned from the Board to take up a role on the board of another industry fund.

Brighter Super is working with The Services Union Queensland to identify a suitably qualified member representative, to be appointed in the first quarter of 2025.

Mr Smith said Ms Thomas, as Director of Brighter Super and its predecessor fund Energy Super, had played an instrumental role in the merger of Energy Super and LGIASuper in 2021 and the rebrand to Brighter Super in July 2022.

"The merger has led to significant uplifts in our services and benefits to members, with a recent announcement of further fee reductions that will come into effect from 1 January 2025.

"On behalf of the Board and Management we wish Ms Thomas all the best in her new role and look forward to welcoming a new Member Representative from The Services Union Queensland in early 2025," Mr Smith said.
